First and foremost, we want to thank you for your support of Little Light Studios by desiring to become a distributor. Not only does this allowed LLS to continue to work and produce positive, creative and Christ-centered products, but it has opened the channels to get these important messages out into the public's hands more effectively.

As we near the soon return of Jesus, never has their been a time when effective means were so crucial for reaching the hearts of a increasing skeptical society. Let's partner together to sow seeds, nurture the crops, and prepare the harvest, by sharing the Good News of the Gospel of Christ.

Lastly, if there is anything that Little Light could do to help equip you with resources that will help your marketing campaigns, please don't hesitate to ask.

Thank you again for your support and we look forward to working with you further.

Sincerely,
Brandon Mascareñas
Business Director
